

Message from 1199SEIU United Healthcare Workers East

We are honored to once again celebrate the professional excellence and skill of our 1199SEIU nurses at the Ninth Annual Nurse of Distinction Awards.

The next few years will be critical ones for our healthcare industry and our nation as we work together to implement landmark health reform legislation. During this time, the dedication and leadership that our 1199SEIU nurses demonstrate on the job every day will be more important than ever before. Their adaptability, commitment and focus on improving the delivery and quality of care will all be critical in helping our industry and our institutions meet these unprecedented changes head-on.

Our nurses are not only leaders in their profession. They are also leaders in our Union and serve as dedicated Union contract administrators, delegates, activists and captains. Along with maintaining the integrity, compassion and commitment essential to the day-to-day delivery of care, they also fight for, educate and support their sisters and brothers in the labor movement.

We know that the road ahead is not easy. We fight each and every day for the resources that the healthcare industry needs to deliver quality care to all of our patients. Our 1199SEIU nurses are always at the forefront, fighting and working to provide that care.

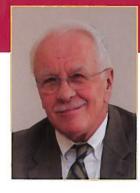

We join a grateful nation in honoring all nurses during National Nurses Week. We offer special thanks and congratulations to the nominees and winners of the 2012 Nurse of Distinction Awards.

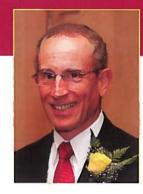

In solidarity,

George Gresham President Moria Cartonida Maria Castaneda

Secretary-Treasurer

Message from League of Voluntary Hospitals and Homes of New York

The Annual Nurse of Distinction Awards Gala is a special evening for all of us, an opportunity to take time out from our daily work to honor the nurses who form the foundation of care in our institutions.

Our nursing professionals are critical to our success, and we thank you for your exceptional work as you strive to set ever-higher standards of patient care delivery. We value and admire your commitment to excellence on every shift, every day, even in the face of the constant pressures inherent in the profession and the healthcare industry.

Each year we are privileged to be part of this Awards ceremony because on top of celebrating our exemplary nurses, the event is also a labor-management collaboration. At the same time we recognize our nurses, we are also celebrating the important successes we can achieve by working together.

We offer our most sincere appreciation to all of the nurses honored tonight. Congratulations to you, and to every 1199SEIU RN for the quality care you provide each day in all of our institutions.

Sincerely,

BM

Message from 1199SEIU RN Division

Congratulations to our 1199SEIU RNs! It is fitting that this annual gala dinner honoring our brightest stars falls during the month of National Nurses Week. But we all know that the important work you do deserves more than a week of recognition. The selfless compassion and dedication that each of you demonstrates on the job should be valued and honored every day of the year.

1199SEIU RNs are truly leaders in the field. Nurses constantly face new challenges on the job as the industry grows and changes, whether you are adapting to new technologies or requirements, dealing with the economic issues facing our hospitals and nursing homes, or managing the changes that health reform brings. But what sets our 1199SEIU nurses apart is that you rise to meet these challenges head-on while still delivering the best quality of care to your patients.

You are always striving for excellence, and are lifelong learners. I encourage you to continue taking advantage of professional and educational opportunities, and to participate in collaborative and committee work in your facilities to make yourselves even more valuable to the field. By continuing to improve your work environment and delivery of care, you can continue to be the leaders that our institutions and industry need to meet the challenges ahead.

Our 1199SEIU nurses are highly recognized and valued by the leadership of the RN Division, the Union at large and even the White House. You are second to none! I also offer special recognition to the Contract Administrators, Delegates, Activists/The Regional Nurses of Upstate New York, Massachusetts, Maryland/Washington, D.C. and Florida for going the extra mile. Your efforts are at the heart of the healthcare systems and the labor movement.

On behalf of the RN Division Vice Presidents, Project Coordinator, Administrative Organizers and the Support Staff of the RN Division, I salute you at this Ninth Annual Nurse of Distinction Awards ceremony.

Enjoy the evening!

Sincerely,

como Anoteden.

Message from 1199SEIU Training and Employment Funds

Masters of Ceremonies

I am pleased to welcome you to the Ninth Annual Nurse of Distinction Awards Gala. For close to ten years, we have gathered during National Nurses Week to recognize the dedication and skill of the 1199SEIU nurses who work hard to provide some of the highest quality care in the nation.

1199SEIU RNs are an exemplary group. Amidst the ongoing challenges of today's healthcare environment, they demonstrate the highest level of professionalism and service to their patients, their colleagues, their institutions and the industry. In fact, we are here tonight, in part, because many of our nurses care enough about their patients and profession to participate in the many labor-management initiatives going on throughout our hospitals and nursing homes. Through these programs, nurses and management work collaboratively to improve healthcare for their patients by overcoming obstacles together. The mutual respect they are developing with their employers empowers them to promote the principles important to nursing, hospitals, nursing homes and the Union.

This collaboration will be essential as we work together to make health reform a reality and to meet the ongoing changes in our industry. As our nurses work to meet these growing demands, we are grateful, as always, for their hard work and perseverance.

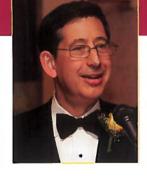

Congratulations to our nominees for their excellence in nursing and ongoing commitment to delivering high-quality patient care.

Sincerely.

Deborah King Executive Director

1199SEIU Training and Employment Funds

Clare E. Thompson, RN, is Vice President and Area Director of the 1199SEIU Registered Nurses Division. A Registered Nurse since 1974, she has also been a Registered Midwife since 1976.

Tonight marks the sixth year that she has co-hosted the annual Nurse of Distinction Awards Dinner. Ms. Thompson has served on the staff of 1199SEIU for the past 20 years as a strong advocate for the nursing profession. To this end, she has pursued the right to dignity, respect, and a better quality of work life for our nurses.

Ms. Thompson has consistently struggled to obtain fair contracts for our 1199SEIU nurses—contracts that have provided favorable wages, benefits, training opportunities, and also addressed their staffing recruitment and retention needs.

Her concern for enhancing staffing levels remains a focus in all her institutions, and she has worked on numerous Labor/Management collaborative initiatives. Ms. Thompson also serves as a Union trustee for the RN Training and Job Security Fund, the RN Training and Upgrading Fund, the Child Care Fund and the 1199SEIU Health Care Employees Pension Fund.

Ms. Thompson oversees Team A of the 1199SEIU League of Registered Nurses Division, which represents nurses in Brooklyn, Queens, Manhattan, Staten Island and parts of Long Island.

Bob Linn, the president of Linn & Green Consulting, Inc., has worked closely with the League of Voluntary Hospitals and Homes of New York for a number of years. He has assisted Tom Helfrich, Senior Vice President and Counsel to the League, in negotiations with the 1199SEIU Registered Nurses for the last four rounds of collective bargaining. Mr. Linn has also participated in all of the RN labor-management projects that 1199SEIU and LVHH have jointly developed, and he firmly believes in the cooperative, interest-based approach that the parties have employed so successfully in their labor-management relations.

Mr. Linn has co-hosted the Nurse of Distinction Awards Dinner with Clare Thompson since 2004. He is proud and thrilled to have been invited back with Clare to co-host this spectacular and important dinner honoring New York's best nurses.

1199SEIU Training and Employment Funds

The 1199SEIU Training and Employment Funds are a joint effort of 1199SEIU and its contributing employers. Our mission is to develop high-quality training, placement and labor-management initiatives that strengthen both the quality of care and our industry as a whole. By providing healthcare workers with educational opportunities, we give them the support they need to effectively provide efficient and caring service. And by working closely with the Union and employers, we help labor and management to solve difficult issues and create innovative solutions together. Through our collaborative work, we intend to create a world-class healthcare workforce and service delivery system.

The 1199SEIU Training and Education Funds offer a full range of professional programs that help RNs stay on the cutting edge of their abilities so they are ready to meet the needs of their employers and the industry.

For more information about our RN programs, please visit www.Nurses.1199SEIUBenefits.org.

The 1199SEIU League Nurse of Distinction Program

The Nurse of Distinction Awards program was established by the collective bargaining agreement between the 1199SEIU RN Division and the League of Voluntary Hospitals and Homes to recognize nurses who have made a difference in their profession. Given the continued nursing shortage, this program addresses the retention of nurses working at the bedside.

A joint committee of appointed 1199SEIU RN, League and non-League members oversees the program. The committee develops the criteria for the awards, solicits nominations from institutions and interviews the nominees.

Tonight, we will present five awards that recognize excellence in practice by both Registered Nurses and managers who work in 1199SEIU hospitals and nursing homes.

The award categories are:

Nurse of Distinction of the Year (hospital setting)

Nurse of Distinction of the Year (nursing home setting)

Nurse Leader of the Year (hospital setting)

Novice Nurse of the Year (hospital setting)

Nurse Preceptor of the Year (hospital setting)

The two Nurse of Distinction Awards are peernominated categories, while staff RNs from each institution nominated the Nurse Leaders. Tonight, we honor all the nominees as representatives of professional excellence in their institutions. We would like to thank the members of the 1199SEIU League Nurse of Distinction Committee:
